

Susan LeBlanc's Biography

Susan LeBlanc is a Retired Annuitant with 30+ years of employment experience in the US and overseas. This includes Federal and State Government entities such as the Departments of Justice, Health Care Services, Public Health and the General Services where she held various positions in the medical, public health, education, judicial, engineering, and contracting industries.

She retired from Federal Service in 2015 having served as a Management Assistant in the Department of the Interior, US Fish & Wildlife Service. Susan was a Personnel Assistant in a US Army university ROTC program; a Secretary to the Principal at two Department of Defense schools: Brindisi High School in southern Italy, and Oslo American School in Bekkestua, Norway. She also served as the Executive Assistant to several high ranking military and civilian executives at McClellan Air Force Base.

Originally from NYC with deep roots throughout New Jersey and Pennsylvania, Susan now happily considers California her home state. She has 4 children, and 7 grandchildren - with a new one expected in late September. She enjoys spending quality time with family and friends and her favorite ways to reset include yoga, cooking, reading, paper crafts, needle crafts, and teaching.